Thousands of Texas FFA Members Will Travel to Fort Worth From Across the State for Annual Convention

WHAT: Texas FFA Association is excited to be once again calling Fort Worth home for their annual state convention. The end of June will bring more than 16,000 Texas FFA members and guests back to the city.

Members of the agricultural youth leadership organization can look forward to a week's worth of dynamic activities including a motivating keynote speech, insightful workshops, career development activities, specialized events and recognition for their achievements. More than 150 scholarships will be given to outstanding graduating seniors, totaling more than $2.3 million through the academic scholarship program.

The city of Fort Worth will provide a fitting setting for cultivating ideas, forging connections and inspiring the future generation of agriculturists and leaders. Cowtown and Texas FFA are a perfect match, both rooted in rich agricultural traditions and strong community values. The event is set to bring substantial commerce contributions to the downtown area.

Experience the unforgettable sights and energy of the Texas FFA Convention, where tradition meets innovation in a sea of blue corduroy jackets. Capture the spirit of Texas agriculture, student success, and the next generation of our country's leaders.
